

Out-of-Pocket Costs of Common Cancer Procedures

| Procedure                   | Average Costwithout Insurance |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Chemotherapy                | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Radiation Therapy           | $10,000 - $50,000+              |
| Bone Marrow Transplant      | $350,000 - $800,000+            |
| Mastectomy                  | $15,000 - $55,000+              |
| Lumpectomy                  | $10,000 - $20,000+              |
| Brain Tumor Treatment       | $50,000 - $700,000+             |
| Bone Cancer Treatment       | $19,000 - $150,000+             |
| Cervical Cancer Treatment   | $2,000 - $100,000+              |
| Liver Cancer Treatment      | $50,000 - $500,000              |
| Thyroid Cancer Treatment    | $4,000 - $60,000+               |
| Breast Cancer Treatment     | $15,000 - $50,000+              |
| Skin Cancer Treatment       | $400 - $50,000+                 |
| Multiple Myeloma Treatment  | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Pancreatic Cancer Treatment | $50,000 - $200,000+             |
| Brain Cancer Treatment      | $35,000 - $800,000+             |
| Kidney Cancer Treatment     | $15,000 - $200,000+             |
| Lung Cancer Treatment       | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Ovarian Cancer Treatment    | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Prostate Cancer Treatment   | $10,000 - $100,000+             |
| Stomach Cancer Treatment    | $25,000 - $200,000+             |

Listed above are the costs associated with the most common cancer procedures and treatments you would be expected to pay without any type of cancer coverage. Enrolling in a cancer insurance plan can help alleviate a lot of the financial stress while also making sure you are getting the care that you need.

Out-of-Pocket Costs of Common Cancer Procedures

| Procedure                   | Average Costwithout Insurance |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Chemotherapy                | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Radiation Therapy           | $10,000 - $50,000+              |
| Bone Marrow Transplant      | $350,000 - $800,000+            |
| Mastectomy                  | $15,000 - $55,000+              |
| Lumpectomy                  | $10,000 - $20,000+              |
| Brain Tumor Treatment       | $50,000 - $700,000+             |
| Bone Cancer Treatment       | $19,000 - $150,000+             |
| Cervical Cancer Treatment   | $2,000 - $100,000+              |
| Liver Cancer Treatment      | $50,000 - $500,000              |
| Thyroid Cancer Treatment    | $4,000 - $60,000+               |
| Breast Cancer Treatment     | $15,000 - $50,000+              |
| Skin Cancer Treatment       | $400 - $50,000+                 |
| Multiple Myeloma Treatment  | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Pancreatic Cancer Treatment | $50,000 - $200,000+             |
| Brain Cancer Treatment      | $35,000 - $800,000+             |
| Kidney Cancer Treatment     | $15,000 - $200,000+             |
| Lung Cancer Treatment       | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Ovarian Cancer Treatment    | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Prostate Cancer Treatment   | $10,000 - $100,000+             |
| Stomach Cancer Treatment    | $25,000 - $200,000+             |

Listed above are the costs associated with the most common cancer procedures and treatments you would be expected to pay without any type of cancer coverage. Enrolling in a cancer insurance plan can help alleviate a lot of the financial stress while also making sure you are getting the care that you need.

Out-of-Pocket Costs of Common Cancer Procedures

| Procedure                   | Average Costwithout Insurance |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Chemotherapy                | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Radiation Therapy           | $10,000 - $50,000+              |
| Bone Marrow Transplant      | $350,000 - $800,000+            |
| Mastectomy                  | $15,000 - $55,000+              |
| Lumpectomy                  | $10,000 - $20,000+              |
| Brain Tumor Treatment       | $50,000 - $700,000+             |
| Bone Cancer Treatment       | $19,000 - $150,000+             |
| Cervical Cancer Treatment   | $2,000 - $100,000+              |
| Liver Cancer Treatment      | $50,000 - $500,000              |
| Thyroid Cancer Treatment    | $4,000 - $60,000+               |
| Breast Cancer Treatment     | $15,000 - $50,000+              |
| Skin Cancer Treatment       | $400 - $50,000+                 |
| Multiple Myeloma Treatment  | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Pancreatic Cancer Treatment | $50,000 - $200,000+             |
| Brain Cancer Treatment      | $35,000 - $800,000+             |
| Kidney Cancer Treatment     | $15,000 - $200,000+             |
| Lung Cancer Treatment       | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Ovarian Cancer Treatment    | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Prostate Cancer Treatment   | $10,000 - $100,000+             |
| Stomach Cancer Treatment    | $25,000 - $200,000+             |

Listed above are the costs associated with the most common cancer procedures and treatments you would be expected to pay without any type of cancer coverage. Enrolling in a cancer insurance plan can help alleviate a lot of the financial stress while also making sure you are getting the care that you need.

Out-of-Pocket Costs of Common Cancer Procedures

| Procedure                   | Average Costwithout Insurance |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| Chemotherapy                | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Radiation Therapy           | $10,000 - $50,000+              |
| Bone Marrow Transplant      | $350,000 - $800,000+            |
| Mastectomy                  | $15,000 - $55,000+              |
| Lumpectomy                  | $10,000 - $20,000+              |
| Brain Tumor Treatment       | $50,000 - $700,000+             |
| Bone Cancer Treatment       | $19,000 - $150,000+             |
| Cervical Cancer Treatment   | $2,000 - $100,000+              |
| Liver Cancer Treatment      | $50,000 - $500,000              |
| Thyroid Cancer Treatment    | $4,000 - $60,000+               |
| Breast Cancer Treatment     | $15,000 - $50,000+              |
| Skin Cancer Treatment       | $400 - $50,000+                 |
| Multiple Myeloma Treatment  | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Pancreatic Cancer Treatment | $50,000 - $200,000+             |
| Brain Cancer Treatment      | $35,000 - $800,000+             |
| Kidney Cancer Treatment     | $15,000 - $200,000+             |
| Lung Cancer Treatment       | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Ovarian Cancer Treatment    | $10,000 - $200,000+             |
| Prostate Cancer Treatment   | $10,000 - $100,000+             |
| Stomach Cancer Treatment    | $25,000 - $200,000+             |

Listed above are the costs associated with the most common cancer procedures and treatments you would be expected to pay without any type of cancer coverage. Enrolling in a cancer insurance plan can help alleviate a lot of the financial stress while also making sure you are getting the care that you need.

